

Breisach am Rhein in 24 Hours

Experience Breisach am Rhein in 24 hours. 24 hours is enough time to get to know the most beautiful sides of Breisach, as well as its other parts.

Here is what you should do and experience in Breisach in a day!

Lets Begin Your 24-Hour Stay.

If you have not checked into your hotel or other accommodation yet, make sure to do that first to drop your luggage off. Now that you have correctly arrived in Breisach, we can begin! If you are still searching for a night time accommodation, our team at the Breisach-Touristik, located on the Marktplatz, will happily assist you in finding a suitable accommodation. Grab a city plan and an informational brochure and onward we go.

As the right entry into your short trip, we recommend a visit to the Breisacher Cafés or Eisdieleen on the Marktplatz, or any one that is near the Marktplatz.

Invigorated, you are on the way to explore the Breisach Cathedral. You will receive the city plan with explanations in our office. Follow the red tour, the Church- Hill Tour (Münsterbergtour). This leads up to our emblem, the St. Stephans Church. Along the way, you will come across interesting informational boards, as well as discover many of Breisach's places of interest. Experience more about Breisach's past and let yourself be surprised from the historical places and buildings you'll find along the way.

Arriving to the lower side of the city, you can settle and treat yourself to a midday snack. From simple Badisch cuisine to foreign specialties, there is something for everyone!

With a joyful feeling of fullness, you then set off on the way to the Geldermann Private Winery (Geldermann Privatsektkelleri) or in the Badish Winery (Badischen Winzerkeller) and take a tour through the undergrounds. At 14.00 from Monday to Saturday, the Sektkellerei Geldermann offers 1-hour daily guided tours included with a sparkling wine tasting (no registration required). Outside of these hours, there are still tours available upon request at www.geldermann.de (Tel: 07667/834-258).

In the Badisch Winery, you can find guided tours every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday at 14.30, also included with a wine tasting (no registration required). Upon further request, guided tours are available after 14.30 at www.badischer-winzerkeller.de (Tel. 07667/900-0). You can find further information about these tours at http://tourismus.breisach.de/de/badische_genuesse/wein-sekt_aus_breisach/fuehrungen-proben.

As an alternative to a winery tour, we recommend to visit our Museum for City History (Museum für Stadtgeschichte) in the historical Rhine tour. From Tuesday (14 -17 o'clock) to Sunday (11.30 – 17.00 o'clock) the doors are open for you. Dive into the history of Breisach am Rhein and its region and explore some 400 m² credentials from the Stone Age to the present. You can find further information at https://stadt.breisach.de/de/kultur/sehenswuerdigkeiten/museum_fuer_stadtgeschichte.

With new knowledge, you can now take a walk through Breisach on your own, which leads you down to the Rhine River (Rhein), where you can take a seat along the bank and watch the swans and ships pass through.

Let the evening come to an end with a cosy dinner in your hotel, vacation rental or in a Breisach gastronomy restaurant. We wish you a good meal (guten Appetit) and a relaxed night.

Begin the new day with a breakfast rich in vitamins.

Strengthened on the way, follow the blue route and the loop Rundweg „Lyrik am Wege“.

This tour brings you upto the Eckarsberg. From this viewpoint, you have an amazing view of Breisach, the Rhine and the surrounding area, even up to the Vogesen and the Black Forest. Subsequently, this tour leads you through Breisach's shopping street. Take your time and visit the shops. The „Neutorstraße“, „Richard Müller-Straße“, „Rheinstraße“, „Kupfertorstraße“, the „Neutorplatz“ and the „Marktplatz“ offer you an attractive shopping experience.

Now you know Breisach from high up as well as down low. As a conclusion to your stay in Breisach, you should take part in a roundtrip of the Rhine. The Breisach passenger shipping (Breisacher Fahrgast- Schifffahrt) offers various rides from April to December. In November and December, rides are offered every Saturday. The daily fares offered in November and December can be connected with a trip to Colmar, Riquewihrer, or the Straßburg Christmas market. The time schedule and further information about the Breisacher Fahrgast-Schifffahrt can be found at www.bfs-info.de. It is a beautiful conclusion to your successful stay in Breisach.
