

Your perfect day in „Breisach am Rhein“

History and Culture

Let's begin with a tour of the historic town center. We start at the tourist office “Breisach-Touristik”, situated in the market square (Marktplatz). Take a map (available in German, French, Italian, Spanish and English) and off we go! The red tour - in the map called “Münsterberg Tour” (tour of the cathedral hill) - leads you up to Breisach's landmark, the cathedral “St. Stephan” <https://se-breisach-merdingen.de/>

Along the way you will pass many other historical buildings and places. They are signposted in 3 languages (German, French, and English). Besides, several signs carry a QR-code with further photos and information in your language.

After a brief visit inside the cathedral, take a rest in the former Franciscan monastery garden in Kapuzinergasse, not far from the church. Enjoy the calmness among flowers and herbal plants as well as the marvelous view of the Kaiserstuhl wine region and the Black Forest mountains. You may be lucky to be there during a concert. www.franziskaner-klostergarten-breisach.de/

At the end of the street Kapuzinergasse you'll arrive at the site of Breisach's open air theatre. Performances in German normally from mid June until mid Sept. on weekends. More info and tickets: www.festspiele-breisach.de.

In the middle of the Radbrunnenallee (street parallel to Kapuzinergasse), you'll see a tower which is called the Radbrunnen. It is open to the public during art exhibitions and concerts. More info www.kunstkreis-radbrunnen.de

At the foot of the Münsterberg you will arrive at the Museum of City History in the historic “Rheintor” (Rhine gate). Numerous objects provide an overview of about 4000 years of Breisach's and the region's history. Open: Tuesday until Friday 2 pm -5 pm, Sat. + Sunday 11.30 am – 5 pm
